On motion, the Report was accepted and adapted.

The following Regulations were adopted in regard to Premiums:

Any animal competing for a Premium, in any Class from A to E inclusive, must either have been raised, or owned for six months past in the County, and must be entered in the name of the actual bona fide owner thereof.

Any article entered for premium in any other Class must have been grown or made in the County, and must be entered in the name of the person or maker thereof.

No person not a member of the Society, can enter any animal or article for a premium without paying $1 to the Treasurer, but may enter as many as he likes on paying that amount.

All articles or animals intended for competition, must be entered with the Secretary by 4 o'clock P. M. of the day previous to the exhibition, and must be brought to the place appointed therefor at such time on the day of exhibition as the Committee of Arrangements shall direct.

No premium will be given unless the animal or article is thought worthy thereof, though there be no competition. The privilege of a member to compete for premiums shall extend to his wife and to members of his family under age.

Committee of Arrangements was appointed, consisting of the President and Secretary, Geo. W. Spaulding, A. Foster, and A. B. Everts, to give notice of the time, to appoint the place for Show and Fair, and to have full power to make all necessary arrangements and appointments.

It was

Resolved, That there be no admittance fee charged to the Cattle Show, and that the admittance fee to the exhibition of useful and fancy articles be ten cents to all except members of the Society.

Resolved, That the President and Secretary get such blanks printed as may be necessary.

Resolved, That the Premium List and the proceedings of this meeting be published in both the newspapers in the County.

On motion adjourned sine die.

W. H. P. BOGAN, President.

JAMES M. PHINNEY, Secretary.

The above Fair is to commence on WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10th, 1860, at the Park of Rev. REEDER SMITH, in the City of Appleton. Entries made on TUESDAY.

The First Annual Address will be delivered by Prof. R. Z. Mason. Com.
